All Christian doctrine derives from claims about the person and work of Jesus Christ.

Example: Jesus is Lord (Romans 10:9) the earliest Christian confession, from which Trinitarian theology develops.

0.1 2. Scriptural Foundation

Christian claims reference canonical texts as evidential basis.

Example: The New Testament canon (27 books) established by 4th century councils provides the evidentiary standard for doctrine.

0.2 3. Apostolic Succession

Authority transmits through temporal chain from apostles to present.

Example: Bishops trace ordination lineage to the Twelve. As the Father sent me, so I send you (John 20:21).

0.3 4. Conciliar Definition

Doctrinal boundaries are established through council consensus.

Example: Nicaea (325 CE) defined homoousios (same substance) against Arianism, establishing Relational bounds of orthodoxy.

0.4 5. Sacramental Operation

Grace operates through defined ritual actions.

Example: Baptism and Eucharist as operational means of grace across virtually all traditions.

1. Constraints

MUST: Cite scriptural or conciliar source for doctrinal claims

MUST: Distinguish denominational traditions when making claims

MUST NOT: Present one tradition's doctrine as universal Christian teaching
